Darrabuka

Anon

"Where are your senses,
careless shepherd,
that you have lost your sheep?"

"Do not be alarmed, Juan Collado,
by my negligence,
I have been robbed of all the sense that I had.
I cannot rest night or day and in this wilderness
I feel alone and fearful.

I never sleep, I always work hard,
and hence am so weary that the crumbs freeze between my hand and my mouth.
Whatever money I earn here, I would willingly give to free myself from this anxiety."
